Spring 2024

Thank You for Your Interest in Our Books!

We are an up-and-coming publishing press based out of Ottawa, Ontario with a dedicated mission: to enrich the lives of children through the magical world of books. Our exclusive focus on children's literature is not just about telling stories—it's about crafting journeys, sparking imaginations, and inspiring young minds.

Our commitment extends beyond the pages of our books. We believe in giving back to the planet and nurturing the next generation of readers and leaders. That's why a portion of proceeds from every book sold is proudly allocated to reforestation efforts and to supporting charitable organizations focused on the welfare of children and the environment. A few of the organizations our books support include:

- Tree Canada
- CHEO
- Reading is Fundamental (SoCal)
- Mallory's Army

Our catalogue showcases a carefully curated selection of titles that promise to entertain, educate, and inspire. By choosing our books for your shelves, you're not just making a purchase—you're joining a community dedicated to making a positive impact.

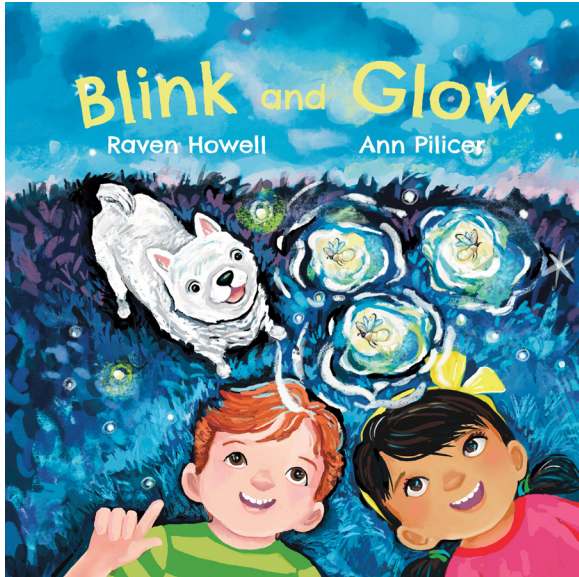

Thank you for considering our collection. We are thrilled to share our world of stories with you and are hopeful for the opportunity to grow together. Let's turn the page to a brighter, greener future, one book at a time.

No School, My Rules! (Available for PRE-ORDER)

Written by Stephanie Henson
 Illustrated by Mai Tran

Summary

“No School, My Rules!” is an imaginative and engaging story that takes readers on a delightful journey through the eyes of a child who questions the need for school. With playful comparisons to the effortless lives of birds, sandcastles, and even trees, this tale humorously explores the idea of a world without school.

As the child contemplates the freedom of these entities, she ultimately discovers the deeper significance of education. This charming narrative not only captivates with its creativity but also imparts a meaningful lesson about the importance of school in shaping a confident and independent future.
